NEW LOOK Uncle Bill's Agony Column

Any letters printed on this page receive two guest passes to Quest

Dear Uncle Bill,

I am writing to say how much Stu Allan has made my bones shake in ecstasy over the last few months. It may sound silly but I am in love with him. I made an appointment to see my local doc last month and I explained my problem fully. The only thing the doc could say was that I am a puff. I have a full time girlfriend who I love very much but I can not bring myself to tell her the problems I am experiencing at the moment. The only answer I have is that Stu Allan should quit pumping the bast hardcore in England and leave the country which would then break my heart.

Please Uncle Bill is there anything you can suggest to help me, from a love-struck hardcore freak,

A. Bailey, Telford.

Uncle Bill says:

I'm not quite sure if you're a girl with a full time girlfriend or a lad. Either way you've got problems, I'm sure Stu would be flattered by this, but I recommend a stretch in the Betty Ford Clinic to iron out your sexuality problems.

Dear Uncle Bill,

I'm writing to enquire about an item which I appear to have misplaced at your excellent club. I was stood at the bar on your February Golden Oldies night, contemplating another lager shandy when I looked round and the item was gone.

I don't believe that this item would just vanish into thin air and I don't believe that anybody would have taken this item on purpose (Quest goes being all good law abiding citizens of course). It is more likely that someone picked this item up by mistake, so if anybody knows of the whereabouts of a beige two seater Chesterfield settee with matching cushions, could you please hand it in at Quest.

Thanks, Steve Timothy, Birmingham.

Uncle Bill says:

I thought after my long break a few of you would have sorted your lives out, obviously not. Uncle Bill has a fat reward on offer for the swift return of Steve's precious settee. All info leads to me please.

Letters

Dear Quest,

Just a few words to say anoth respect to you and also all crew, all of the Quest doo's I have been to are good and all (tastes nice). All line ups are cool and the night is good, could you say a big respect to my partner in crime DJ Melody (Bham) he plays at Pandemonium anoth respect all crew a Bham. Please put a few lines in the newsletter please. Many thanks!!

Big Respect Uncle Bill, hope to read my letter soon on the newsletter.

Lee Parker,
Birmingham Rood Boy

Dear Quest Crew,

Thanks for a wicked night out on the 12th March 1994.

It was the first time I'd seen Coot Hand Flex play and he was great, also thanks to LTJ Bukem, DJ Hype, Ragga Paz, Ribbs and Conrad. Keep it up Quest.

P.S. I would have stayed for Donovan 'Bad Boy' Smith but the person I came with blanked out in the toilets and had to be carried outside. Too much beer.

Thanks, Pecka from Dudley.

Dear Quest,

I am a hardcore raver from Birmingham and I am just writing to say thanks for a great night on March 12. It was well wicked - my head is still feeling the vibe! Also a big shout out to Phil Cashman who I met at the event - thanks for showing me that great dance move!! One more thing, I am surrounded by flyers in my room BUT I need to get the ceiling covered so I need all your ravers out there to send me your spare flyers PLEASE. New or old, I don't care but it is a big ceiling so get those flyers to me A.S.A.P. I will send some back in return to anyone who sends me some. Write to Natalie Bates, 133 Dovehouse Lane, Solihull, West Midlands, B91 2EL.

Respect to you all,
see you in April.

Dear Quest,

I am writing this letter for one or two reasons. Firstly, Mashed at the Que Club was %*$#! wicked. Respect to everybody who went. All the DJ's were wicked, Bassman was his usual self - wicked. Big respect to Andy Dyer (Coach promoter), the College Crew and 54 Bewdley Hill Crew - you know who you are. Keep up the good work Quest.

Luiz Ferreira, Kidderminster.
P.S. Respect to Seg

Dear Quest,

If there's just one all-righter that everybody should have been at it was M*A*S*H*E*D. The bass lines are still thumping in my head as I had a kickin' time. At £13.50 a ticket it was a small price to pay for a wicked night. Kenny Ken, Pilgrim and Stu Allen I knew wouldn't let me down, thanx Quest.

Shelley, Wolverhampton.
P.S. If I knew that army was this good I would have signed up ages ago!!!
